some thoughts

i've been trying to work on my memory
shuffling through brain foods like salmon and peanuts i've stolen six cameras i rarely use them
when my back hurts
i take some advil
sometimes when i feel fine
the world we live in things vary by degrees feels weird to walk around being ninety-eight-point-six degrees sometimes misremembering just feels good tho even still i should get more sleep
